

Get Your GameON

Your Infinite Skills Hub

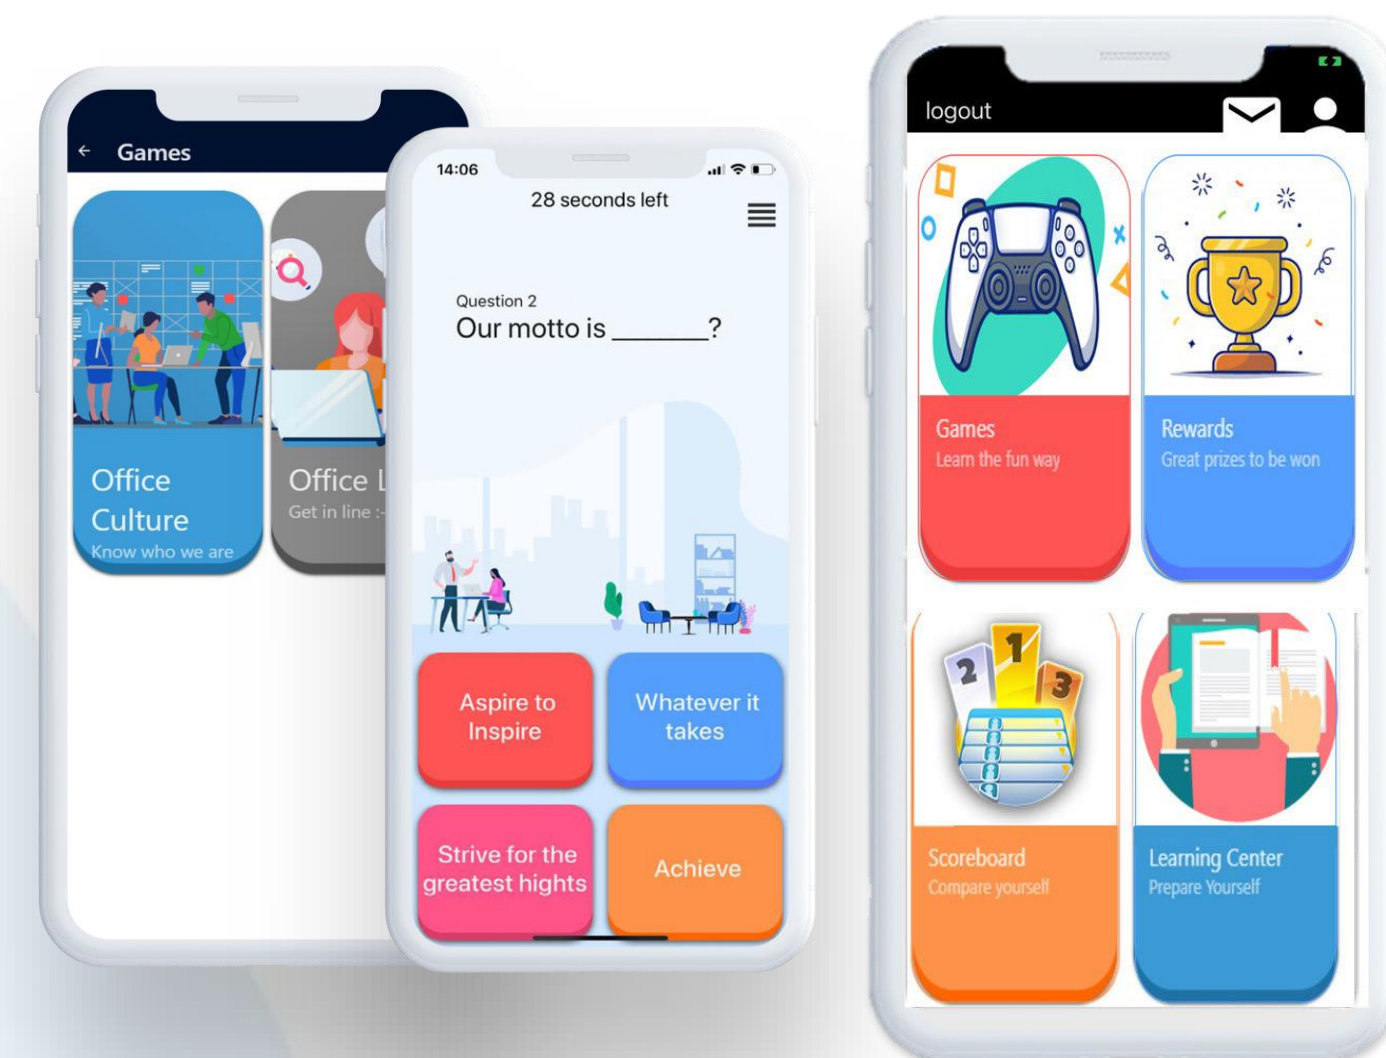

Budget, time & commitment are constraints we all deal with daily, especially training our employees. GameON was developed to address these constraints with a technology-driven, micro learning solution that is affordable, engaging and rewarding for companies of all sizes.

Applying micro learning allows you to better train your employees, resulting in them performing better in their roles, have better knowledge of your products and services and retaining this knowledge for longer.

- Customizable platform using corporate branding, logo and colours.
- Learning Centre for training material.
- Short daily assessments to test your employee's knowledge.
- Built-in reward structure to keep users engaged and participating.
- Leader Board to add competitiveness amongst staff.
- Built-in communication tool that can be used to announce all business news such as: new products, video links, internal communications and any changes in policy, incentives and products - all at the push of a button.
- Monthly management feedback on all aspects of training including staff participation and engagement levels.

over 5000

GameON Road to a Sale

Well Trained Sales Staff Sell Cars

Over 5000 active users globally

What if there was a way to teach your employees how to close a deal by following a sales process to build value in the customers mind?

Budget, time & commitment are constraints we all deal with daily, especially training our employees. GameON was developed to address these constraints with a technology-driven, micro-learning solution that is affordable, engaging and rewarding for companies of all sizes. Applying micro-learning allows you to train your employees better, resulting in increased knowledge and information retention, ultimately leading to better performance.

Road To A Sale! is a training solution designed to improve your employee’s ability to close more deals by learning how to improve the customer experience and build value. Customers expect personalised service deserving of their spend – and as such, the sales process should meet and exceed their expectations. A high value purchase decision will only convert when the customer has a high value experience.

Road To A Sale! is developed by GameON that will help your employees reach the next level. Sales staff will learn how to:

- Prospect and Source Leads
- Meet and Greet
- Qualify the Customer
- Select and Present
- Platform Test Drives and Demo’s
- Complete Valuations
- Initiate the Final Close and OTP Sign
- Finance Application
- Delivery and Follow up
